(A) Hirsch Eldod was noted as "Hirsch Menke Eltott" (Menk standing for his father's name Menachem) at Roedelmaier matrikel list in 1817, his brother Moses Simson Eltott was noted as cattle broker in Roedelmaier. Moses Simson married ca 1827 his wife Klara - their first child was born on 17 Mar 1828. Hirsch Eldod had first applied for family name "Koenigshofer" (his ancestors probably had lived in Koenigshofen), but was denied by local ruler Baron von Lochner, so he adopted "Eltott" what later became "Eldod".

(B) Samuel Eldod bought house Sonnemann Strasse 15 in Hoechberg together with Lazarus Ottensooser. Samuel Eldod lived there and managed a school ("Praeparanden Schule"), today it's a exhibition space.

A Naphtali Eldod (born 3 Feb 1899 Hoechberg) was deported to Riga in 1941
